

DEPARTMENT OF TRAINING AND PLACEMENT

REPORT

WEBINAR TO OUR FACULTIES AND STUDENTS ON THE TOPIC “GOING THROUGH TOUGH TIMES” ON 28.04.2020.

The Department of Management studies jointly with the Department of Training and Placement conducted a Webinar to our faculties and students on the topic “Going through Tough Times” on 28.04.2020. The guest speaker Mr. Charles- HR Leader, ZOHO gave a motivational talk and how to handle situation at hard times. More than 90 plus students and faculties participated and benefited through this webinar.

In this webinar the speaker brought out the fact that in human life “Nothing is permanent” and he gave examples from his personal life. The speaker motivated the students based on his personal experience. He added that in order to become a successful person one should be passionate about his career, should be humble, should have integrity and should learn to have self respect. He also brought out that life will bring various opportunities it depends on the person to handle even during hard times. Students and Faculties were guided on utilizing the time provided during the lockdown and to learn about new technologies.