76th Republic Day Celebrations - 2025

Vinayaka Missions Research Foundation, located near Mamallapuram in Chengalpattu district, Chennai campus Celebrated 76th Republic Day Celebration - 2025 Sunday, 26.1.2025, along with all the institutes namely, Arts and Science Faculty (SAS), Arupadaiveedu Engineering College (AVIT), Vinayaka Missions Law College (VMLS), Health Science Faculty (SAHS), Department of Management Faculty (DOM) and Economics Faculty (VSEP), organized the 76th Republic Day in a grand manner. The festival was inaugurated at 9 am with the blessings and greetings of His Excellency the Chancellor Dr. A. S. Ganesan and Vice-Chancellor Dr. Anuradha Ganesan. The event began with the Tamil Thai greeting song. Following this, the national flag was hoisted. A spectacular parade of National Cadet Corps (NCC), National Service Scheme (NSS) students and students took place. Following this, the Principals remembered the leaders and martyrs who fought for freedom through their speeches. This was followed by a Bharatanatyam group dance by the students and the singing of patriotic songs, which entertained everyone. The students' speeches on India, gender understanding, equality, education and brotherhood, quoting from various platforms, on the topic of "Women in a free country? Or a free country for women?" and on the topic of "Yan" and sexual atrocities, further enhanced the Republic Day celebrations. They also performed a social awareness play by making leaders like legal luminary Dr. Ambedkar, Mahatma Gandhi, Mahakavi Bharathiyar and Bharat Mata appear in disguise and talk about the contemporary situation. At the end of the event, the national anthem was sung and the ceremony concluded. At the end, sweets were distributed to everyone and Republic Day greetings were exchanged. With the kind cooperation of the professors, students, and office staff working at the Vinayaka Missions Research Foundation Chennai campus, the Republic Day celebrations concluded in a grand manner.
