The Department of Management organized a outbound learning session, to visit “DAKSHAN CHITRA” on 21st September 2024. I Year MBA students participated in the seminar. Students have gained new insights and information relevant to the subject matter they are studying. Focus on developing specific skills through practical application during the trip. Outbound learning often involves hands-on, real-world learning experiences. Encourage students to engage with different cultures, values, and practices. Provide opportunities for students to engage in situations that require analytical thinking and quick decision-making.
